

3rd Revised Basic Course Workshop & AETCOM

3rd Revised Basic Course Workshop & AETCOM module was conducted by the department of Medical Education, Narayana Medical College under aegis of Regional Centre for Medical Education Technology, Andhra Medical College, Vishakhapatnam with the approval by Medical Council of India from July 1st to 4th, 2019. All days programs were started at 8.30AM and closed by 5.30PM at Learning Hall, Medical Education Unit. Inaugural function was graced by the Dean Dr.V.Surya Prakasa Rao and the Observer from Medical Council of India Dr.P.Bala Murali Krishna. Total 30 participants from various specialties of Narayana Medical College & General Hospital undergone this training program.

All participants were actively participated throughout the process of training. Total 9 Resource persons were participated and delivered their presentations in this workshop. Group activities were conducted on the merits & demerits of Exit exam for Indian Medical Graduate. The interactive sessions among the participants and Resource Persons were much interesting through out the program. On the last day of the program sessions were conducted on AETCOM module by focusing on its advantages and role of AETCOM module for progression of a competent Indian Medical Graduate. Simulated paper cases were discussed to identify the ethical violations while dealing with the patients to the deliver the health care.

Final open house discussion was held and filled in feed back forms were collected from all the participants. Validictory function was conducted in the presence of the Dean, MCI Observer, Resource Persons of Medical Education Unit and Participants. participants Certificates were distributed to all the participants and Resource Persons, by the Dean and the Observer from MCI.

