

INTERNATIONAL WOMENS DAY 8TH March 2022

On the occasion of International Women's Day, it was decided to felicitate three senior women faculty members of Narayana Medical College & Hospital. The celebrations started at 3PM on 08.03.2022 Dr.Sharmila Bhanu, Associate Professor of Anatomy invited the guests of the occasion, Dr. S P Rao Garu, Dean Narayana Medical College & Hospital, Dr. Hari Prasad Reddy Garu Medical Superintendent Narayana General Hospital, Dr. V. Sitalakshmi Prof & HOD Obstetrics & Gynecology, Dr. C. Ramamani Prof of Obstetrics & Gynaecology & Dr.V. Venkata Seshamma , Prof & HOD, Psychiatry, Narayana Medical College & Hospital, on to the dias. The Program started with a prayer by Dr.C.Jyothi followed by Jyothiprajwalana. Dean Dr. S.P.Rao Garu addressed the gathering. He stressed the importance of literacy and employment and economic independence among the women in particular because these are the most important things to achieve the theme of IWD 2022 "Gender equality today for a sustainable Tomorrow". Dr. Hari Prasad Reddy Garu, MS, NMCH also spoke about the different ways to achieve this gender equality and also highlighted the importance of education in women. Later the three senior most faculty members were felicitated and they spoke about achievement of Gender Equality, Problems of female foeticide declining sex-ratio and the only solution is education and self-sufficiency for women. Prizes were distributed for Teaching and Non-Teaching Staff who participated in the various fun games held on the occasion of women's day.

The program concluded with a vote of thanks by Dr.C.Jyothi, Vice Principal, Narayana Medical College followed by National Anthem.

