

World TB day 24th March

On the occasion of world TB day, 24th March 2022, Narayana Medical College has conducted flash mob at MGB mall followed by health education in the form of skit & flash cards were prepared in local language and English to create awareness about prevention of TB by the department of Community Medicine & NSS UNIT Narayana Medical College, Nellore. Dr. C Jyothi gave health education regarding prevention of TB and sputum disposal to all the visitors at the mall & the programme was moderated by Dr. Saleha Afreen, Assistant Professor, Community Medicine & NSS Co-ordinator.

Skit was done at Govt. school Venkatachalem and health education regarding prevention of TB was given by Dr. Venkata Prassana, Assistant Professor, Community Medicine.

Flash mob was done by 3rd year students, skit was prepared by Dr. Kartik UHTC medical officer & staff of UHTC.

Essay writing competition was conducted among MBBS students. Prizes and participation certificates were given.

