"We can all aspire to the Moon & Beyond"

6th IAPM AP PATHCON 2024

14th, 15th & 16th SEPTEMBER

Greeting to all Pathologists

The Theme of the 2024 IAPM AP PATHCON to be held at Narayana Medical College and Hospital, Nellore is

"We can all aspire to the Moon & Beyond".

Scientific and technological advances have made history and India is on the Moon. These technological breakthroughs have also made a paradigm shift in the world health care today.

Artificial intelligence has incorporated scientific research through clinical informatics including genomics, proteomics, bioinformatics and biostatistics, into clinical practice unlocking innovative approaches for patient care. Advancements in AI based Computational Pathology can contribute valuable insights to diagnosis, prognosis, and treatment of disease.

Now we are in the Era of precision medicine which needs Pathology to be "Precise" and this dynamic discipline is evolving to be the central driver of personalized health care by integrating morphology with molecular profiling.

On behalf of the IAPM AP Chapter, the Department of Pathology Narayana Medical College and Hospital, we welcome you to the 6th Annual IAPM AP – PATHCON 2024, on 14th,15th &16th September 2024. An academic regale is assured along with a sumptuous breakfast, a lavish lunch and a gorgeous banquet of typical Nellore flavors. More attractions will unravel with time. Nellore sight seeing includes Narasimha konda, Jonnavada, Ranganadhaswami and Rajarajeshwari temples and Kodur and Mypadu beaches. Please save the dates and enjoy our hospitality.
